800X 36 PAGE 1013

- A. And, down one (1) side of it was Lenharts.
- Q. What was the name?
- A. Rosencrantz is up on the back of it, Lenhart went on or one (1) side.
- Q. And, who was on the other side?
- A. Now, I don't know who owned that piece of ground that was on the other side but William Lee he built...is one (1) on this side of it now.
- Q. William Lee?
  - A. That was his mother's place.
- Q. Now, on this plat on the north side is a notation that the property's owned by John W. Lee?
- A. Well, that was his mother's place at that time.
- Q. That's the same land you're talking about?
  - A. That's the same land, yeah, where William Lee is.
- Q. Alright. Now, before...
- A. On that same piece of ground where William Lee's place
- is...what's the woman's name that bought the piece of
- property, one (1) side of the piece of property?
  - BY ATTORNEY MORRISON:
- Mrs. Brown.

23

21

25

- A. Mrs. Brown got a piece of ground on that same piece of property where William Lae's place is too.
- Q. Alright. Now, you've described three (3) of the four
  - (4) sides of this property, is the fourth side the Flint
- Hill Road side?
- A. The fourth side's the road.

e described to the second of t

Q. Alright. And, that is the extent of your father's